Dear Ms Ratcliffe,

Thank you for your email which has been forwarded to me. I share your frustration and that of your clients. Of particular importance to the inquest is the Serious Untoward Incident report which although promised has yet to be completed. In addition two critical statements are outstanding. I am writing to you with the evidence gathered and am setting a date for the inquest for which I am allowing a day. I am looking for a date in October subject to witness and your clients' availability. Please come back to me if there are dates to be avoided. Have your clients provided you with a statement? If so a copy will be appreciated.

Yours sincerely,

Nicholas Rheinberg
