

R And that's why I feel it sort of unfolds if you do it that way, so if you step back. Now, now Dawn was very much not getting involved and I think it kind of worked better.

00.55.53 I&S Yeah, so.

R It's not good for the (inaudible)

I&S Lonely but professional.

R But for the.

I&S The

R Integrity of the Unit.

I&S Yeah.

R It, it holds, I felt it holds better, and you can't do both, you cannot, you could be friendly but you can't, 'cos you lose that contact anyway.

I&S Yeah.

R And it's interesting, we went to London on an outing and Lucy was, was there.

I&S What was that for?

R Erm we went to see, I think it was the Bodyguard.

I&S Oh yeah.

R Yeah.

I&S When was that?

R Ouph, I didn't go after, I haven't been for ages and I haven't been since, erm it was before all this started.

00.56.33 I&S Oh okay, yeah. What works out, all the girls from the Unit, or?

R Yeah.

I&S It was before 2.

R A group, a group of us went.

I&S Yeah.

I&S Before 2015 then.

R Yeah, yeah.

I&S Yeah.

I&S Yeah.

R Yeah, yeah. I think it could be in 2013 even.

I&S Yeah.

R It, it was.

I&S Yeah.

R Very early on.

00.56.52 I&S And?

R Erm I remember them asking me what I thought of Lucy, you know as a person, and I said, "WELL SHE'S QUIRKY."

I&S

Who asked you that?

R

It was in one of the meetings, I think it was Ravi that asked me, yeah.

I&S

Oh okay.

R

You know, "WHAT, WHAT DO YOU THINK OF HER PERSONALITY?" "WELL SHE'S QUIRKY" but then like so am I quirky, so is, well actually if you went through the off duty, through the list, we're all quirky and that's why it works.

I&S

Yeah.

R

Just one thing that she did, she wouldn't travel on, on the subway. Why is that wrong, I don't know, I just don't know why.

I&S

You mean like on the tubes and that?

R

Yeah, yeah.

I&S

Yeah.

R

She wouldn't go on the tube. I don't now.

I&S

Yeah.

R

Because of.

I&S

Yeah.

00.57.43

R

The problems in London.

I&S

Yeah.

R

I'd rather have somewhere to run to.

I&S Accent.

R Uhm?

I&S Any accent, any?

R No.

I&S Just if we had to identify him in any way.

R No there was no specific accent.

I&S I get nothing happened with the baby, the baby was fin, was it?

R The baby was fine, yeah once the staff got hold of him and sorted him out but you get some of that, you have to act and that's what I'm saying, you know.

I&S Hmm.

R If there was anything, I mean we had one member of staff that, she was not safe and we had a, she was gone within weeks, we had supervised ...

I&S Right, who was that?

R Oh that was years ago, that was in 2011.

I&S Right.

R She had a first in a degree, she was, nobody failed her, nothing, everything was grand.

I&S Yeah.

R She came on and she wasn't doing something that was right and I said, "RIGHT IF SHE CAN'T SEE

THAT, WE'LL HAVE TO PULL HER RIGHT BACK AND START AGAIN." Oh she didn't like that, so she left. Great, ha, ha.

I&S

Yeah.

R

Great.

I&S

Yeah.

So we think that could be the one then, possibly.

Yeah so that gentleman there and he was removed from the locum list.

R

Yeah and he didn't come back.

I&S

By Doctor V

Was, was, was it Lucy and Kate, was it, who complained?

R

I don't know for sure if it was Kate, it's either, it'd either be Kate BISSELL, or Kate WARD, but I, I seem to have a leaning towards Kate WARD.

I&S

And do you think Lucy was there at the same time.

R

Yeah, yeah, I remember them very upset about it, very distressed about it but, and to be honest if, if they ever came to me in the morning like that I have to deal with it straightaway.

I&S

Yeah

R

If I, as soon as something comes in and I can, can sort it out, I'll, I'd go and straighten it
