I&S. Happy shopping! I am going shopping tomorrow to try to get my outfit for my son's wedding, so much pressure, not looking forward to it! My daughters will be honest about how I look!!! See you Tuesday, x

That is a lot of pressure but at least your girls will help you, I'm sure you will find something. Where are you going shopping? X

They are taking me to Trafford

Get ready but think it will be fun! X

They are taking me to Trafford Centre. I don't think it will be fun! X

Every shop under the sun there! You'll have to ease the pain with coffee, cake and a meal out!! X

Now that does sound more fun! Did you have a successful shop? X

We didn't want anything in particular but enjoyed browsing! We went to the cathedrals and the maritime museum too. just having tea out X

I like both cathedrals, so different with the old traditional in contrast with the modern. Sounds like a good day. X

Did you get a wedding outfit? X

Tried on so many! One I liked but didn't have my size. Will need to go again next weekend. They kept putting big hats on me, looked terrible, they had a good laugh!!

At least you found something you like. Oh that's mean! Are you going to have a hat? Mum has told me there is no way she will wear one if I get married!! X

I don't want a hat, they just drown me. Will just have a nice dress and jacket. Will show you some photos later. How's the roast doing?

Yes I think that'll be nice. It's ok so far thanks - It's getting the timings right isn't it! X

It's taken me years of practice and sometimes still the potatoes aren't crispy enough! Always tastes nice though. I am doing a lamb roast later.

We've got turkey my favourite! I love bread sauce and stuffing x

I was coming down but I said you are out until 3 so shall I just see you at the meeting? X

I can be free and in the office if you want to come. No problem.

I think H thinks I was on a smoking walkabout with Sue but it was cancelled.
